

28th ANNUAL PACIFIC NORTHWEST DANISH CULTURAL CONFERENCE
June 23-25, 2006 (Friday noon through Sunday noon)

Menucha Retreat and Conference Center (<http://www.menucha.org/>)
38711 East Historic Columbia River Highway, Corbett, Oregon

PURPOSE:

This conference is an opportunity to share a heritage. Begun in 1979, this event focuses on Danish heritage and how an interest in Danish culture might be encouraged and preserved. The conference provides an opportunity to participate in a program of lectures, song, language instruction, literature discussion, dialog, outdoor nature walks, and fellowship.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS FOR 2006:

James Iversen—Sojourns in Denmark
Niels Jensen—The Kingdom within Denmark: A Story about Mærsk McKinney Møller
Don Mowatt—Bournonville: Master of the Danish Ballet
Rakul Ketels—The Faroe Islands
Inger Olsen—Danes and Memory

REGISTRATION:

Conference charges include all meals and lodging. Participants who chose to stay off site will be charged the same rate. Room assignments are made as registrations arrive and on a “first come, first serve” basis. Please register early for special assignments. Bedding includes linen, blankets, pillow, and towels.
